

WE HESITATE TO SAY anything about "our operation" after the letter we published from Merrill Grim last week. If Merrill is a good example about how some feel, we should keep our big fat mouth shut for a while.

Yet we think some explanation is warranted, about this balloon bit we are going through, if for nothing else than to protect the gals in our office.

Anyway our doctor has prescribed, believe it or not, that to strengthen this lung of ours that has sort of been under the weather and under the knife, we should blow up balloons at regular intervals during the day.

Blowing up balloons has not been one of our strong suits. But we are learning and have now become a pro at it or at least a semi-pro.

But we must admit that the gals in the office do have a point.

It DOES sound sort of silly for them to ask someone to call back later as George is tied up.

He is blowing up balloons. Incidentally, don't laugh.

Have you ever tried to blow up the darn things?

Talk about being a blow-hard.....

AS YOU ARE WELL aware, newspaper people spend a lot of their waking hours (and some of the other kind, too) covering meetings.

Few other professions demand such intensive coverage.

Unless it would be city managers.

Or maybe clergymen.

We thought about that after the second annual Congress for Community Progress when the Rev. Ben Gould, general chairman, called an "evaluation" meeting of his committee.

Ben's Congress committee was composed of some of the most conscientious citizens of the area. That is, if attendance at the various committee meetings before the Congress is used as a criteria. The percentage of members present at these meetings probably set a new indoor record.

It took considerable planning and coordination to put on the Congress, as you probably realize. The committee had to meet at frequent intervals before the event took place and there always was good attendance.

Early in the game it was decided by the group that the committee would meet on Sunday night!

That is probably the first time in the history of this community that a civic body picked Sunday night as a meeting time.

Probably the thinking of the group was that if Ben, a Methodist minister, was willing to give up his Sunday night for this particular civic responsibility, they felt they could too.

And they did.

In our opinion, it speaks worlds for the respect that they all held for Ben.

But to get back to the point we were making that a city manager is almost as meeting-prone as a newspaperman or a clergyman—

City Manager Bob Stephens, for example, was an active member of the Congress committee. He attended every Sunday night meeting.

Except the last one, the evaluation session called by Ben after the Congress had taken place.

And really, Bob should get an "E" for effort on that occasion. He actually was there but it didn't count.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS were held in the board room of West Valley College and Stephens, who had been out of town, had hurried back in order to attend this evaluation meeting called by Ben.

When Bob pulled into the college parking lot that evening there was no other car in the whole area.

When no one showed up

"Displaced" from sub-standard housing in City create problem

WHERE TO GO—Four families now living in the inadequate housing "project" pictured above on W. Campbell Ave. will become "displaced" persons whenever the property is improved eventually. Where such people can go or how they can pay the rent for adequate housing are questions that concern the community.

IN THE WAY OF PROGRESS—A parking lot is planned where this house is located at 55 Harrison. A family of nine children and two adults now living in it must find other housing.

CALL MEETING—Newly-elected officers of the Citizens Committee for City Beautification are Carl Kuhn, secretary, and Mrs. Courtland (Jeanette) Watson, president. They invite interested citizens and representatives of local clubs to attend a meeting on Wednesday, April 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the city hall to participate in the discussion of plans for improving the appearance of the city.

One of the main functions of the beautification committee will be to direct the annual "beautification day" scheduled for May 4. Landscaping plans for the creek and other projects will be outlined at the meeting on April 3. Mrs. Ruth Hartman, of the Campbell Garden Club, is vice-chairman of the citizens group.

City may sell bonds next month

Campbell City Council on Monday took the necessary action that would sell $500,000 worth of general obligation bonds on April 23, the first of the $2,600,000 bond issue that the voters approved last October.

According to a formula adopted some time ago, the $500,000 would be spread over four categories. The civic center complex would get $80,000 mostly for land acquisition; the library would be allocated $70,000; the fire department $250,000 and streets would get $100,000 ($25,000 for the Rincon Ave. pedestrian overpass).

In another matter relating to the bond issue, the council authorized the employment of Felix Castellanos and Association of Santa Clara as acquisition agent for the city in

Candidates talk at forum Friday

Citizens of Campbell this Friday night (March 29) will have an opportunity to hear and meet the candidates for the City Council at a forum in the Campbell High cafeteria.

Sponsored by the Campbell JayCees and the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, the six candidates for the three council posts have agreed to appear at the only "meet-the-candidate forum" that has been scheduled before the April 9 city election.

Dale Scott, a Campbell resident and executive director of the Santa Clara County Taxpayers Association, will be moderator of the forum.

Dave Valkenaar, of the JayCees, and Arland Hatfield, of the C of C, are co-chairmen of the event.

The candidates will each make statements on why they want to serve on the Council and then will be available to answer questions from the audience.

After the question-and-answer period, members of the audience will have an opportunity to meet the candidates at a social hour.

Members of the JayCees will serve refreshments during the social hour. There will be no admission charge.

Tour of local industry features C of C luncheon

Campbell Chamber of Commerce first monthly luncheon meeting of 1968 this Thursday, March 28, will include a tour of one of Campbell's newest industrial plants, Snowden-Pencer Manufacturing Co.

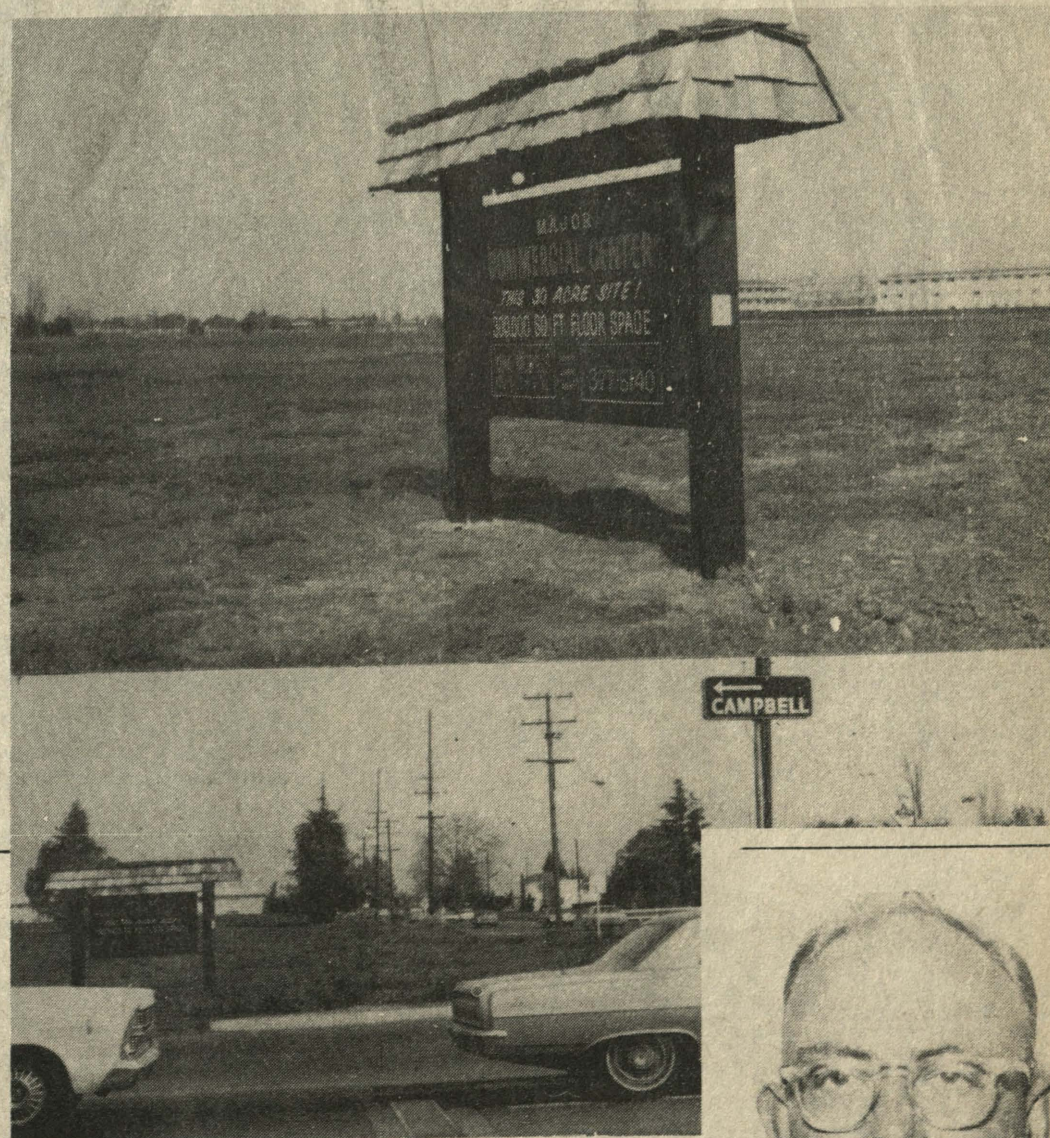

The luncheon will be held at Villa Felice at 12 noon and will be the first to be presided over by Ken Mantle, C of C president of 1968. The annual installation dinner took the place of the luncheon in January and the second annual Congress for Community Progress replaced February's luncheon meeting.

Officials of Snowden-Pencer plant on Dell Ave. manufacturers of surgical instruments, will be guests at the luncheon at which time Tom Snowden, general manager, will give a brief resume of the company.

Following the luncheon, members and guests will caravan to the Dell Ave. plant and will be the first official group to tour the facilities.

The tour is expected to take approximately 20 minutes and it will be possible to view some of the surgical instruments being manufactured.

SIGN OF THE FUTURE—The Planning Commission recently approved a service station to be located at E. Campbell Ave. and Bascom on the former Brynteson Ranch.

Now owned by Fred Sahadi, owner of Cardiff Affair, a plush apartment house on Union Ave. and other buildings, the largest shopping center for Campbell is planned for the location. Approximately 300,000 square feet of floor space will be available.

Rincon overpass wins ok

If the Board of Supervisors approve the recommendation of the County Transportation Policy Committee, a pedestrian overpass at the expressway and Rincon Ave. should soon become a reality.

Estimated to cost approximately $100,000, the construction of the overpass would be a joint venture of the county, the City of Campbell, the Campbell school district and the City of San Jose.

According to the formula worked out, the county would pick up the tab for one-half or $50,000; Campbell would pay up to $25,000 and San Jose and the school district would divide the balance at $12,500 each.

Campbell's share was included in the bond issue approved last October.

Last week, the Transportation Policy Committee, on which Vice-Mayor Bill Smeed is this city's representative, approved the allocation of $50,000 for the overpass. The supervisors are expected to act on the matter next Monday.

RESIGNS—Carl Arnold, member of the Campbell Police Department for 12 years and who was the department's first captain, this week submitted his resignation to Police Chief John Morgan, effective immediately. Arnold who joined the force in 1956, plans to enter private business.

Arnold was named sergeant in 1959 and appointed lieutenant July 1, 1960 and captain on August 1, 1964. His successor will be named from within the department after a competitive examination. Chief Morgan said that five officers are eligible to take the exam.

City Council candidates answer questions on civic issues

The Campbell Press has received answers from all City Council candidates to the 11 questions submitted to them relative to various civic issues and problems. The following questions were submitted:

1. What experience and training do you have to qualify you for this office?
2. If elected what do you feel would be your major responsibility to the community?
3. What do you think are the three major problems facing Campbell today?

4. What improvements do you think should be made in city services and how should they be financed?
5. Do you favor the development of the downtown core on Campbell Ave. following the modified "mall" plan with the so-called north-south loop system?
6. Should Campbell attempt to maintain a low density residential pattern, or should more intensive use of remaining open lands be encouraged?

7. Should specific areas be reserved for single-family development?

8. Should high density be permitted in all sections of Campbell and what type of residential zoning should there be adjacent to expressways or freeways?

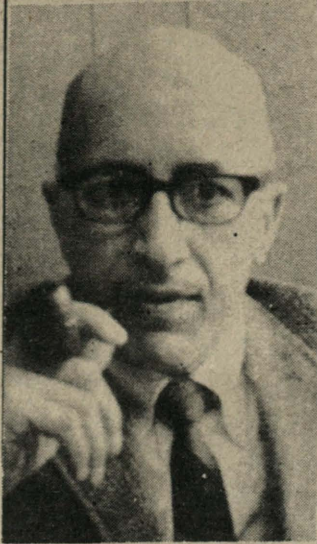

9. Do you favor a more active promotion in the development of controlled industrial areas within the city limits?

10. How should the city expand its cultural and recreational facilities within its present budgetary limitations or should a tax be levied to develop such projects?

11. Should Campbell encourage maximum commercial development inclusive of new strip commercial, shopping centers, isolated stores and service commercial operations?

ANSWER TO QUESTION 1:

I stand on my 10 year record as City Councilman. No one can question the time, dedication, interest and enthusiasm that I have for the community where I was born and raised. Spent all my working life dealing with people in competitive retail business. This experience gave me good training with people and that is what City Government is, by the people, for the people, as they pay the cost of City government.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 2:

Representing the taxpayers, and getting the most progressive miles out of their tax dollars.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 3:

- (a) Adopting downtown plan and the overall 701 Plan that is practically completed by Consulting Firm.
- (b) City commitment to developing, improving Corporation Yard and equipment to do a better job more economically.
- (c) Cutting cost of City government. This should be first on the list in order to accomplish any progressive developments.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 4:

Streamline all services to be more effective and also cutting costs instead of looking for new finances all of the time.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 5:

You bet I do. After fighting for this cause for ten years, it may get off the ground. Will see how the Council acts on this one.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 6:

City of Campbell is unique on this question. It can have both low and high density.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 7:

There are small areas in our City that lean toward single-family development.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 8:

We have three areas where high density could develop in time. San Tomas core area, Campbell downtown core area (adjacent to Expressway; Freeways under Plan Development). Expressways and Freeways are our front and back porch. We know that the Freeways along the Creek are exposed to all. We should control and do our best toward it.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 9:

The Chamber of Commerce is being paid by the City to play an active promotion part. Or do you mean the City can do a more effective job on their own?

ANSWER TO QUESTION 10:

The schools are doing a very good job in this area. It can be expanded with citizens getting involved, like the little league is handled. City can participate by equipping and developing some of the school grounds.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 11:

There are areas in Campbell that will develop commercially on account of the heavy traffic and not any other way. So these areas will be attracted for this rise when better physical improvements are completed, as we are the Hub of the Wheel of these main heavily traveled streets.

Edward J. Rogers (INCUMBENT)

ANSWER TO QUESTION 1:

I have served eight years on the City Council as Mayor, Vice-Mayor and Councilman. During this time, I have had to help solve problems concerning streets, parks, budgets, finance, personnel, zoning plus other related items of local government.

In addition, I have both my M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Stanford University and have taught government for a number of years at San Jose State College.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 2:

My major responsibility to the community would be to provide it with an honest representation which is responsive to community needs and desires. Included would be support for efficient, cost-conscious methods for our city government.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 3:

As I see it the main problems at present touch on the following:

- a.) Streets: Although excellent work has been done in widening and surfacing streets, still more needs to be done. Now that bond money is available, I feel that a systematic campaign to put in curbs, gutters, sidewalks and paving is a must. The re-habilitation of these old streets would dovetail perfectly with the uplifting of the downtown area.
- b.) Downtown Rehabilitation and Beautification: All cities should have a central nucleus around which the rest of the city develops. I am in favor of a program which would rehabilitate and beautify this downtown area (modernized stores, underground utilities, street trees and other landscaping, and off-street parking for customers).
- c.) Campbell Youth: This is an area in which the city could show increasing interest. I believe, we should take action in developing Rincon Park for young and old alike. We should tie in more closely a recreational program with the school system. The city should encourage the formation of a committee representing the city, the school districts and Campbell business to study and implement means by which our teenagers can find summer jobs, thereby keeping them profitably occupied.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 4:

This question has now been answered by the voters with the passage of the bond program this past fall. I supported this bond program 100%. With these funds, the city is now prepared to build a civic center designed to bring greater efficiency to our administrative departments, and, in addition, give a new, well-equipped home to our badly cramped police department. A new library will also be built plus another fire station.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 5:

I am a strong backer of the downtown development plan calling for a landscaped modified "mall" for shopping and traffic on Campbell Avenue with a north-south loop system to move "through" traffic quickly through the downtown.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 6:

It depends on the location of the remaining lands. Generally speaking, those undeveloped lands nearer the downtown area (roughly between Winchester and Bascom) in my view, would lend themselves more to a multiple type of development.

However, the undeveloped lands west of Winchester and in the San Tomas area (with some exceptions) should remain low density since they are completely surrounded by single-family homes. The exceptions could be on very busy streets like San Tomas or in areas surrounding shopping centers.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 7:

I believe that certain areas should be reserved as prime single-family areas without intrusion of commercial or multiple development. I feel very strongly about preserving and developing attractive single-family homes in Campbell.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 8:

I see no reason why high density should not be permitted in all sections provided it is developed along freeways, major traffic-carrying streets or around shopping centers and does not impinge detrimentally on single-family zones.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 9:

Yes, I do favor more promotion of such controlled industry especially into our industrial park. This is a field in which the Chamber of Commerce, which receives a city subsidy, should be working on continuously.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 10:

I recommend joint city-school district cooperation and a fuller park program with recreational advantages. Such groups as the Campbell Artist Guild should be encouraged to expand their efforts. There is a place here for a Little Theater group and a symphony orchestra. The retention of West Valley College, with all its cultural facets, would be an asset.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 11:

Under our master plan, there are generous areas zoned commercial. These I would hope to see developed and producing sales tax revenue in the near future.

Dean Chamberlin

ANSWER TO QUESTION 1:

For almost thirty years, I have lived in Campbell and worked for its people. As a high school teacher, Principal, and district staff officer I have participated in the planning and building of the new schools which have met our community's needs.

Since December, 1966, I have served as a member of Campbell's Planning Commission, gaining the first hand experience which a Councilman needs regarding his city's government processes.

The equivalent of seven years of college; plus up-to-date training in data processing, community planning, public relations techniques, and personnel relations.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 2:

I believe that the City Council should be a policy making body, directing the government and development of Campbell as a whole and the best use of its resources. In reaching decisions, Councilmen have an obligation to obtain complete and accurate information regarding issues under consideration, then to translate policy into constructive action. Councilmen should be constantly in communication with the electorate; but they should not "cave in" under pressures brought by self-seeking interests either in or out of the city.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 3:

First: The improvement of Campbell's general image as a place to live and do business, particularly in the central part of town.

Second: The financing of needed improvements in streets, parks, and other public facilities without imposing a prohibitive burden upon Campbell tax payers.

Third: The development of a spirit of pride and cooperative effort among the citizens of Campbell as a whole. Note: The Citizens Advisory Committee and the Congress for Community Progress have already made real progress in this direction.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 4:

I feel that the city staff is doing an excellent job right now within their budget limitations. Long range improvements would include a better east-west traffic circulation system, and better park facilities. These would have to be paid for by bonds, and I feel that the improvements passed in the October election have rightly been assigned a higher priority.

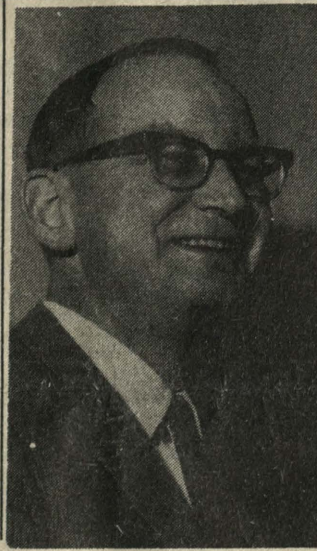

ANSWER TO QUESTION 5:

I have studied the plan very carefully, and favor it in concept. I have not yet seen very accurate estimates of the cost, because they have yet to be developed. Like any other major purchase, I want to see the price tag before I make final commitment on the expenditure.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 6:

These questions are not mutually exclusive. In many areas

Robert Dalzell

ANSWER TO QUESTION 1:

I have lived in Campbell 22 years and in the last 4 years become very interested in affairs concerned with the development and progress of the city. I have served on various citizens committees, taken an active part in both Congresses for Community Progress, attended most council meetings in the past 2 years and have worked very closely with city officials in my occupation. I have gained considerable leadership training and an insight to city government as a member and president of the Campbell Jaycees.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 2:

The major responsibility of a city councilman is to oversee the efficient operation of the city and to see that the city grows and develops, considering the desires of the citizens and the betterment of the community.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 3:

The three major problems of the city today are the improvement of the downtown retail area, the location of a campus for the West Valley College, and improvement of residential and minor commercial streets.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 4:

The city services will have to be expanded to meet the needs of the community as the population increases and more area is developed. The recent bond issue has provided for this expansion for the near future. The city services such as fire, police, and city administration benefit the city as a whole in many ways and therefore should be financed through bond issues.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 5:

Yes, I favor the modified "mall" plan for the development of the downtown core on Campbell Ave. If the downtown businesses are to survive, improvements must be made as soon as possible. The modified "mall" concept is the most economical and physically feasible plan proposed.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 6:

It is my feeling that Campbell should strive to maintain a relatively low density residential pattern in general, with higher density residential development in some areas.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 7:

I feel very strongly that certain areas of Campbell, particularly the established neighborhoods, should be reserved for single family development.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 8:

High density development should not be permitted in all sections of Campbell and areas adjacent to freeways and expressways should be zoned for medium density apartments and duplexes.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 9:

Yes, more active promotion of controlled industrial development should be carried out. This type of development provides a good tax base and draws more revenue producing business into the community.

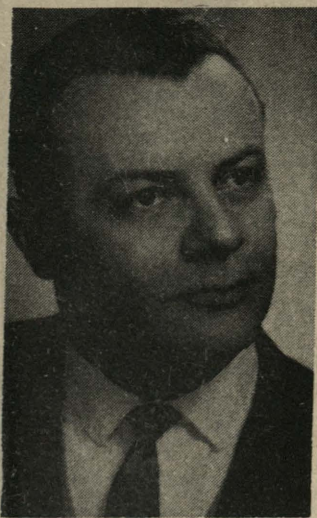

ANSWER TO QUESTION 10:

It is not necessary for the city to expand its cultural and recreational facilities, if it will work with the school districts to promote and coordinate the use of existing recreational facilities and cultural programs. This would require very little or no city expenditures.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 11:

I feel that Campbell presently has enough land which is zoned commercial and there is sufficient commercial development to meet the needs in the near future. Strong attempts should be made to revitalize some of the existing commercial developments or to relocate them to undeveloped commercial land.

MORE ABOUT

it is hoped that at least part of the "displacement" problem will be solved when the authority is going full blast. The authority will be empowered to lease buildings from private parties and in turn, rent to low-income people, at reduced rent with the authority making up the difference.

The civic center complex affects the housing situation also. Much of the property that the city will have to acquire for the civic center which was approved by the citizens last fall will be sub-standard dwellings...now inhabited.

So, if the city goes ahead full blast in this project, it will be in danger of becoming the real villain of the drama, unless other housing can be found for occupants of the dwellings that the city will acquire.

A majority of the occupants of the sub-standard houses in the city are of Mexican-American extraction.

How many families live in sub-standard houses within the city limits is still a matter of conjecture.

Estimates run as high as 300 families, or almost 2000 people, involved, most of whom are of Mexican descent.

This south-of-the-border influence is borne out in the name of a new community organization that was formed last year when the housing authority discussion was at its height.

Called "United Progreso Arriba", the organization now has an estimated 100 members, all renters in most cases, of sub-standard houses.

Most of the membership are of Mexican-American extraction and they maintain they have a common goal to improve housing conditions, and to find adequate housing for those now living in sub-standard dwellings.

Augustine Lopez, of 197 N. Central, is president. Joe Villaneuva, 233 E. Everett St. is vice-president and Sheila Garcia is treasurer. Another active worker in the group is Margaret Magdaleno, 1421 Westmont Ave.

Steve Biggs, of the EOC office in the San Tomas area, is also working with the organization.

To compound the problem even more is the fact that the housing problem is not just isolated to Campbell. There is a housing shortage throughout the entire county and the "displaced" people are not able to relocate in any other community in the county either.

Although there is no immediate answer to the problem, it is hoped by interested citizens that the county housing authority may alleviate at least part of the problem when it gets rolling.

Some also hope that private enterprise might come up with an answer and build housing the purchase of properties approved in the bond issue.

This includes the parcels required for the civic center and fire station sites. The contract with the firm specifies that the amount paid the acquisition agent would not exceed $1,375.

The Council on Monday after considerable discussion approved the informal agreement made between Bill Wren, city public works director and Stephen R. Kagel, owner of Blendwell at Campbell and Third St.

Kagel is also owner of a lot at Third and Campbell.

Under the agreement the city will widen Campbell Ave. for the extent of the lot and improve the right turn area at Third. Kagel will install curb and sidewalk.

The city's tab for the job was estimated to be $2375.

Wren was also directed to explore the possibility of the elementary school district and/or the college sharing in the cost for the improvement of Third St.

In another action, the ordinance changing the zone of property owned by Lowell Grattan along San Tomas Expressway to multiples (R-2-S) was adopted by a 3-2 vote. Mayor Ed Rogers and Councilman Charles Rose opposed the zone change as they had when the ordinance was first presented. Favoring the zoning were Councilmen Homer Hyde, Ralph Doetsch and Bill Smeed.

Final approval was also given the ordinance regulating parking on Winchester Blvd. and the first reading was given the new street tree ordinance and the ordinance setting up a $25 fee for applications for approval of plans.

Dick Hogan, planning director, explained that no fee was now being charged for the processing of the plans. The cost was being borne by the general taxpayer. Rose voted against the establishment of a fence.

The council also on Monday appointed Mrs. Linda Neil, 327 N. Milton and Courtland Watson, 61 Catalpa Lane, to the Parks and Recreation Commission. They fill the vacancies created by the resignations of Mrs. Betty Grizzle and Mrs. Margaret Fraker.

K OF C WEEK

Mayor Ed Rogers has proclaimed the week of March 24 to March 31 as Knights of Columbus week.

But all are also agreed that a housing problem does exist. And in Campbell.

City firemen to go "visiting" --- backyards to get inspected

Don't panic, ma'am, your house isn't on fire.

And, if you chance to look out the window and see a shiny red fire truck in front of the neighbors, it doesn't necessarily mean their Johnny has set the house on fire!

Somewhere in your neighborhood, though, there might be a yard, or lot, or other fire hazard which Johnny could put to good use with his trusty matches unless—

It's that time again, folks. It's time to "Fix-Up", "Paint Up", and particularly, "Clean Up" your own backyard.

And that's why starting April 1, Campbell fire ladders will start systematically visiting every house within the city limits to ask for permission to inspect the premises and notify the resident of any dangerous conditions which might subsequently endanger lives or property.

Spearheading the "clean up" will be Gene Borden, fire marshal, who hopes that the fire department and the citizenry can "team up" this year with a city-wide project which will allow Campbell to compete with its neighboring cities in a "clean-sweep" contest.

Culminating the clean-up will be a free rubbish pickup by Garden City Disposal Company on May 10.

Meantime, the fire department will conduct a yard-to-yard inspection, so YOU will be ready.

Planners face heavy agenda

Three of the items on the heavy Planning Commission agenda for next Monday's meeting (April 1) involve the Crocker-Citizens National Bank and the proposed development of the Rolling Hills Shopping Center at Hacienda and San Tomas Aquino Road.

The bank is asking approval of the remainder of phase I of the development. Plans now include a restaurant-cocktail lounge. A new time-table for the entire development of the center is also requested.

Request for approval of a use permit for an automatic car wash at 424 Darryl Drive submitted by Kenneth W. Bott is also on the agenda as well as plans for a warehouse and office at 2980 Winchester Blvd. submitted by R.V. Cloud and for an office addition at 200 Cristich Lane submitted by Robert Walker.

Had your first sunburn of the season yet?

If so, read on and find out how it happened. If not, read on, and possibly pick up some pointers on how to avoid or minimize sunburn.

Actually, a suntan has no real health value. But there may be a psychological therapeutic result in the sense of relaxation and well being gained from basking in the warm sunshine, if it isn't overdone.

Over-exposure to the hot sun can cause burns, as almost everyone has found out. Less known is the fact that continued over-exposure over a period of years can cause the skin to look weatherbeaten, wrinkled, leathery and coarse in texture.

The time of day of exposure is important. The burning ultraviolet rays are most intense from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. No sunburn is likely before 8 a.m. and after 4 p.m. High noon is the hottest time of day for sunburn. Rays reflected from sand or water can burn, even though you may not be directly exposed.

Individual sensitivities differ. You must to some extent learn for yourself how much sun you can tolerate. A general guide for most persons, assum-

Mobile home community offers relaxed adult living

Paseo de Palomas

Two brick pillars and blossoming fruit trees line the driveway into Paseo de Palomas. Campbell's newest and most luxurious mobile home community at 295 Union Ave. A driver can't see it from the road. It's hidden among the trees, away from the "maddening crowd."

On a spring day you see housewives sweeping the walks, or a man and his dog taking an afternoon siesta on a chaise longue. Here and there people are riding bicycles to the pool.

Redwood gazebos and dove cotes dot the winding walkways landscaped with ivy and colored rocks. It is truly a picture of perfect tranquility.

Mrs. Hazel Lacher and her daughter, Alice Vogel, are two pleased occupants of a beautiful mobile home in Paseo de Palomas. Former residents of Los Altos, where they had a big house with extensive gardens to care for, they find this new way of living extremely satisfying. Mrs. Lacher says she chose this over an apartment retirement center.

"It's more like belonging to a community here. The mobile homes are really a permanent set-up, much better than big home ownership and all its responsibilities," she said.

Developers Fred Sahadi and Mac Morris of Campbell have left no stone unturned to make this project attractive. The lots are a large 51 x 75 ft. and feature 12 ft. carports. The 20 to 24 ft. wide mobile coaches are permanently installed on concrete foundations. Each owner has his own storeroom on his lot for tools and garden furniture, etc.

There is sufficient area for a garden in addition to the "common green" cared for by the developers. Each mobile home is custom decorated to the owner's specifications...

wallpaper, paint, wall arrangement, wood paneling, appliances, may be personally selected by the purchaser.

SPACIOUSNESS

When you step inside a so-called "mobile home" it is hard to believe your eyes. Some have sunken living rooms, most are elegantly carpeted and draped. There are no narrow kitchens and halls, the double width of the coaches gives a spacious air to the rooms.

Separate dining rooms, all electric kitchens, built in washers and dryers, two bathrooms, a master bedroom and a smaller bedroom are the usual number of rooms in the homes. Depending on the owners' taste, some are formally decorated while others have a more casual atmosphere. The double doors to the homes are constructed of rich carved wood and feature decorative wrought iron railings up the

RECREATION

The recreation building and surrounding area carry out the California-Spanish heritage. The columns and arches are reminiscent of early California adobe. A beautiful Spanish fountain graces the entryway of the recreational building.

A large central activity room has an impressive cathedral ceiling, rich wood paneling and amber colored glass. There is a carpeted card room and library and a billiard room featuring two billiard tables. There is a kitchen with built-in ovens, range and grill for pot-luck dinners, breakfasts and special occasions.

Other facilities including a relaxing Sauna bath, a central laundry room with television and lounge area; a workshop for the handyman, a large swimming pool in the secluded area, four colorful terrazo shuffleboard courts and a large barbecue in a courtyard nearby.

Owners have the pleasure of their own home and all the recreational facilities of a private club.

COST

What does it cost to live in a community like this? After the initial purchase of your mobile home you lease the lots for approximately $120 a month. This includes property taxes, insurance, and utilities.

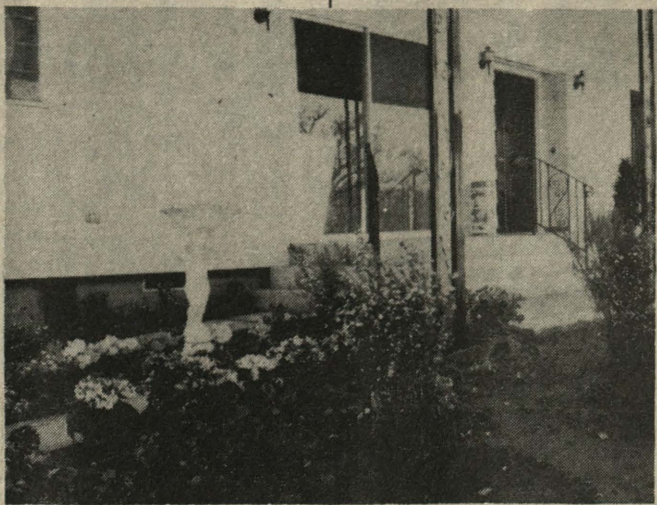

individual mail service, paved lighted streets, underground utilities etc. and the use of the recreational facilities.

If you can afford it, this is a delightful, gracious carefree life for adults.

GARDEN ENTRY--Here is a typical entry way to a mobile home at Paseo de Palomas. Each resident has a small garden area to maintain while the developers care for a "common green" area.

Organ concert

The Stevens Organ Club of San Jose will present a concert Tuesday evening, April 2 featuring the well-known artist Bill Langford. The concert will be held at the Willow Glen Methodist Church recreation hall Newport and Minnesota Ave. at 8 p.m.

Members will be admitted free, but the public is welcome. Guest donation for adults is 75 cents and children 25 cents. Tickets will be available at the door.

POOL AREA--A beautiful swimming pool in a secluded area of Paseo de Palomas has attracted many residents during the recent warm days.

String quartette will perform for school children

The San Jose State Chamber ensemble will perform for third and fourth graders of Campbell School District at Blackford High School on Wednesday April 3, sponsored by Young Audiences, Inc. an organization interested in professional concerts for elementary school children. They will present a second concert at Monroe School on April 24.

Parent-teacher groups or home and school clubs interested in sponsoring the concerts are invited to contact Mrs. Lucien Hertert, 22830 San Juan Rd., Cupertino or telephone 252-5928.

EOC election

Low income representatives to the West Valley Economic Opportunity Commission Board of Directors will be held Sunday afternoon, March 31 at the home of Augustine Lopez, 197 N. Central Ave. There will be music and refreshments. The meeting will begin at 1 p.m. and combine with a social afternoon until 5 p.m.

in 15 minutes or so, Stephens took off, assuming that the meeting date had been changed while he was out of town.

But the meeting date had not been changed.

It turned out that Bob had been a half-hour early for it and had left before any of the other committee members had arrived.

THOSE OF YOU WHO have followed our verbal meanderings in this column over the years with any sort of regularity may recall that we have long hammered away at the theme that Campbell "is a big boy now". We claim that it is unnecessary to go outside the city limits to recruit people to serve on civic boards (or on the city payroll as department heads, for that matter).

Although we have made this pitch for years, we concede that in the early days of the city (circa the late '50's) when the population was less than 10,000, our premise was not as easily defended as is the case today.

With 22,000 people now living within the city limits, it would be a sad commentary on life in general and Campbell in particular, if it was felt necessary to go outside the city to find someone to serve on advisory commissions.

The city now has a policy that department heads must live within the city limits. We think this is commendable and should have been in effect years ago.

City councilmen are required to reside within the city limits, and we have always advocated that other city officials should likewise.

ADMITTEDLY OUR theme has infuriated a number of people over the years. Some have claimed that, if our thinking on this subject was followed to the extreme, the city would be the loser, inasmuch as it would eliminate those civic-minded people who lived "just over the line".

And a good employee who couldn't find a suitable place to live within the city limits would be lost to the city.

We say nuts to that argument.

Yet we think our stand was vindicated to a great extent during the successful city bond campaign last year.

It was specified that 75% of the members of the citizens committee had to reside within the city limits. Actually almost 90% of the committee did.

We think it is doubly important that civic leaders live within the city limits, when there is a campaign on to gain votes of the electorate, either for individuals or for bond issues.

We are extremely provincial in this matter.

So what else is new?

ONE OF OTHER crosses (to use the term loosely and sort of punfully) that your editor has had to bear during all these years in running this operation (we mean the newspaper, Merrill, not the lung) is that we can never vote privately or secretly like you other folks do.

Traditionally we make a big to-do about the way we are going to cast our ballot before any election.

We assure you that there have been many times when we would have loved to sort of slink in without any fanfare, loudly proclaiming that voting was our own private affair.

We don't mean that someone goes into the booth with us and watches us use the "X".

But since we have been newspapering (longer than we care to specify) there hasn't been an election in which we haven't announced how we were going to vote beforehand.

It is called "endorsement by the paper" or something like that.

But no matter how thin you slice it, it still means that the "endorsement" is how your editor is going to vote.

Unless he is a hypocrite, of course.

But that is one of the few things we haven't been called.

ANYWAY THE CITY election is with us again (Tuesday, April 9).

Next issue, the last one before the voting, we take the leap which is always good for losing a few friends here and there.

Three councilmen are to be elected. There are six candidates.

Of course, many of you are aware that we have long felt sincerely that Councilman Bill Smeed is deserving of your support for a second term.

So, we suppose, our endorsement in next issue will be somewhat anti-climatic in that one instance.

But we won't spoil your fun. Get your brickbats ready.

Tune in next week at the same time, same place.

We will tell you how we are going to mark our own ballot for councilmen on April 9.

Obituaries

MRS. ELENA ROBINSON

Funeral services were held Friday for Mrs. Elena May Robinson, 83, a resident of Campbell since 1891. Mrs. Robinson was the wife of retired hardware clerk Thomas A. Robinson. She succumbed in a Campbell hospital following an extended illness.

Mrs. Robinson was a native of Ohio, and came to Campbell 77 years ago with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. McCaughey. The family bought part of the old Casey ranch and set out an orchard at McGlincey land and what is now Winchester Boulevard. She attended local schools.

She was known as the "first lady of Campbell" as she was the holder of the number one library card.

The couple were honored at a reception at the Campbell Congregational Church on their Golden Wedding anniversary in 1956. Mrs. Robinson was a member of Rebekah Lodge, OES, Orchard City Grange and the Campbell Congregational Church.

Besides her husband, she is survived by four sons and daughters, William Robinson of Sebastopol, Bert Robinson and Mrs. Helen Rose of Campbell and Mrs. Eva Coffin of El Cerrito, eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Services were conducted at Campbell Memorial Chapel with interment in Los Gatos Memorial Park.

NEIGHBORHOOD 15

Junior Scout Troop 953, Forest Hill School, recently held a "Court of Awards" to present badges and recognition to the members of the troop. Parents and Brownie Scouts attended this very special activity.

Mrs. William Van Wyngaarden and Mrs. Walter Apollo, troop leaders, presented the awards after a brief explanation of the purpose of each badge. This is an active troop and each girl received one or more awards during the evening. Janette George and Christa Van Wyngaarden were presented with their Sign of the Arrow.

Top honors for the most badges earned went to a young, fifth grade scout, Nori Krause. Nori was presented with 9 different awards, bringing her total of badges earned to fifteen.

Below is an article written by Nori Krause, in connection with the Creative Writing Badge on which she is now working.

BY NORI KRAUSE

Everyone knows that helping other people who are less fortunate than yourself gives you a wonderful feeling inside. Well, that's the way the Girl Scouts of Troop 953 feel.

Under the guidance of their leaders, Mrs. Julie Van Wyngaarden, and assistant leader, Mrs. Mary Apollo, they undertook a project to help the 86 children in the Door of Faith Orphanage in Mexico. They worked in committees making different toys and games for these children who range in age from less than one year to 15. In addition to this, the girls gathered used clothing and donated items such as soap wash cloths, towels and Kool-Aid. The Troop also has the help of Mr. and Mrs. Hamns of San Jose who make regular trips to the orphanage and deliver everything the troop contributes.

Recently five of the Scouts, Christa Van Wyngaarden, Cheryl Mortimer, Amy Hendricks, Evelyn Spirlock and Nori Krause, delivered these gifts to Mr. and Mrs. Hamns who will be taking a trip to Mexico in April. The Hamns showed these girls pictures of the orphanage, items that the children there have made, and things of interest they have brought back from Mexico. Through projects like this, these girls are gaining a better understanding of their world neighbors, and at the same time, experiencing good feelings within themselves by lending a helping hand.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

This week's ON CAPITOL HILL will attempt to provide a simplified answer to the question, "How did the United States get into this gold mess?" To set the stage, we must dispel the mistaken theory that we are on a gold standard, with a currency backed by gold. Actually this has not been the case since 1933. Today, the American monetary system is one which runs on faith and the dollar is considered to be as strong as the strength of the U.S. economy. At Bretton Woods, New Hampshire, in 1944 an international monetary system was created in which the dollar was designated as the free world's "reserve currency". This means that when free nations trade with one another the balance is settled in dollars. It also means that the dollar is supposed to be as acceptable for such purposes as gold, to have a status equal to gold, and could always be converted into gold at $35 per ounce.

Our exports usually exceed imports, so why should we have to put out gold? The answer lies in our heavy military spending abroad, the great sums we spend in economic aid, what our tourists spend, and what American investors invest overseas to secure the benefit of lower labor rates and an advantage in foreign trade. So, as in the typical year of 1967, a surplus in our balance of trade of $3.6 billion became a deficit of $3.5 billion. In 17 of the last 18 years we have spent more money abroad than we have earned. Much of the balance has been claimed in gold to bring our reserve down to $11.4 billion—a drop in the bucket compared to the $34 billion in foreign held credits. The so-called free world gold pool has stabilized the gold market by this method: Whenever speculation forced the market price above the pegged price of $35, gold pool nations would place their own gold on the market to force the price down. This device, plus confidence in the American economy, induced foreign businessmen to keep their credits in dollars rather than convert them to gold. Then came the irrational and strong-headed tactics of General Charles DeGaulle! The idea of the dollar being the world's reserve currency instead of the franc rankled his ego. So France started claiming U.S. gold, withdrew from the "pool", and actually encouraged wild speculation in gold. The inevitable result was the action taken by gold pool nations in Washington last week.

As Sylvia Porter, the distinguished financial columnist, has said, "We got into this mess by pursuing policies abroad and at home which have undermined the faith of our foreign friends in our financial responsibility...The run on gold...was an indictment of our failure to offset soaring Vietnam spending with higher income taxes and lower non-military spending...It was a warning that we must make strengthening of the dollar a major goal..." We need both a spending cutback and a new tax. But the first step must be taken by Lyndon Johnson. If he will honestly cut domestic spending, I believe Congress will consent to raise taxes. Without both, the dollar will soon be floundering with the British pound!

THE SPY IN THE CORPORATE STRUCTURE and The Right to Privacy by Edward Engberg.
Edward Engberg is a former staff writer on Fortune magazine. In this book he details all the devices included in the arsenal of the accomplished corporate spy. Engberg is seriously concerned with the individual's right to privacy, with free speech, and ultimately, with decency. He presents us with concrete proposals as to how we can fight this great invasion of our privacy for which industry—and government too—is responsible.

CLASSIC CARS IN PROFILE. Vol. 2
In this second volume of Automobile History appear details of a further 24 cars, described and illustrated by the world's leading authors and artists. Histories of these world famous classic cars are profusely illustrated with photographs.

ARCHITECTURE, MAN IN POSSESSION OF HIS EARTH. by Frank Lloyd Wright.
In this profusely and handsomely illustrated work, Mr. Wright, characteristically original, explains architecture in terms of its basic, common materials. Not a history of architecture, it is rather, a biography and a demonstration by example of what Frank Lloyd Wright believed. It will serve as a beautiful and understandable introduction to architecture for young and old alike, and will be indispensable to the followers of Frank Lloyd Wright.

THE GREAT CONSPIRACY by Donald Barr Chidsey. Aaron Burr and His Strange Doings in the West.

Aaron Burr was one of the most astounding and perplexing men in American history. Was he really anxious to establish himself as Emperor of Mexico? Chidsey dramatically brings to life all the circumstances surrounding the duel with Alexander Hamilton...and asks the question what were the motives and ambitions of this curious and powerful man?

New steakery can seat 128

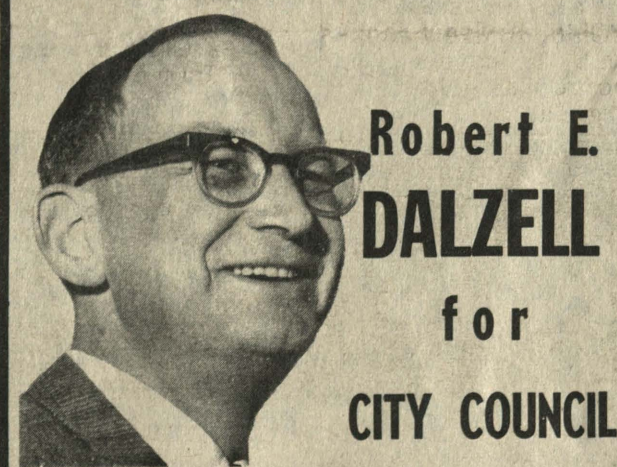

"I love it." That's what Ezra "Red" Fargo, owner-manager of the four week old MR. STEAK, located at Apricot and Bascom Ave., says about his new venture. Fargo, a former building contractor from the east coast, has found his life and times much changed since he became a specialist in family dining, but he is enjoying it every minute. Although his working day averages better than 16 hours, Fargo is pleased with the results and enjoys the local setting.

This is the first MR. STEAK in the county, with Sacramento having the closest other franchise restaurant. To date, the moderately priced eating establishments, which seats 128, has had business a-plenty and found customers congenial.

Better than 60 parking spaces are available to patrons, who find the rug and tile floors complimented by stone walls are a pleasant atmosphere for their mealtimes. Current business hours are 11 a.m. to 9 p.m., seven days a week.

Planning for the good of the whole community and zoning consistent with that good planning.

Resolving the upward tax spiral thought:

Organization of industrial growth and Gaining the participation and enthusiasm of all citizens.

Recognizing PROGRESSive alternatives without forfeiting proven values.

Extending the Congress for Community PROGRESS to include more individuals representing all viewpoints.

"The Woman Is Requested to Pay", the idea behind the annual TWIRP week, is in progress, giving the female sex the prerogative of showing her favorite guy some interest. The week began with "Color Day", and will terminate in the annual Twirp Dance, Friday evening.

Monday's attire showed a prevalence of green, red, blue and white as each class wore its specific color. Participants donned off-beat clothing combinations Tuesday, as "Clash Day" appeared. Today and tomorrow will prove the point as "Silence Day" and "Slave Day" are held. Today no girl is to speak to a male without his permission. And tomorrow the girl will be expected to perform all the customary masculine courtesies. But the gals come out on top Friday, as they reap the benefits of their efforts in "Revenge Day". That's when things return to "normal" during school hours.

The switch will again be made Friday evening as the gals gift their fellas with candy corsages and take them to the Twirp Dance. The "Copper Brick Window" will entertain at the event, to be held from 8 - 11 p.m. Admission is 50 cents a couple with ASB cards and 75 cents without.

CSF and Honor Society members will be recognized tonight (Wednesday) at the Honors Banquet, which will be held at 6:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. New officers will be in charge of the banquet. Music will be provided by the folk singing group of Folk Sounds, Inc., and Anna Tucker, soloist. CSF members will be admitted free of charge, and guests, $1.75. Special recognition will be given to those seniors earning their Seabearer awards.

New officers in charge of the banquet are Steve Bignell, president; Bill Culley, vice president; Pat Griffin, secretary; Gayle Towner, treasurer; Joe Mugdan and Nancy Shaw, joint historians; and Kirk Cunningham, sergeant-at-arms.

"A breakfast for champions", Camden's GAA annual pancake breakfast, will be served this Sunday morning from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the cafeteria. Tickets, costing $1 for adults and 50 cents for children, will purchase pancakes, eggs, juice and coffee. Money from this event will go towards GAA camp and needed equipment, according to Gayle Towner and Nancy Shaw, chairmen.

Camden High woodworking students Joe Yanez, Bob Pifer, Milton Caris and Fred Pifer are currently entering the nationwide Stanley Tools Scholarship Contest, with a scholarship grand prize of $1,000.

Each student will be submitting a drawing of the project, list of materials required, and a photograph of the completed project. Judges will select the 10 best entries which later will be required to send their actual completed projects for final judging.

Camden's Varsity baseball team had an extremely full schedule last week as they played three games, including an opener of their league competition. Tuesday's competition against Saratoga opened the season competition, with Camden scoring more runs, 5-2, however resulting in a forfeit, due to a misunderstanding. Thursday's and Saturday's non-league games ended in a split record, the Cougar batters falling to St. Francis, but defeating Samuel Ayer. Joint pitching efforts have come from Rich Troedson, Bill Culley, Lynn Langefeldt and Bill Graber.

In other athletics, Camden's track team was out-run by Blackford in the postponed meet, held Friday. Camden lost by a narrow margin of 5 points.

Another heart-breaker came to the tennis team Tuesday as they lost their league-opener to Saratoga, 6-1.

The females are holding their own though, as the volleyball players vollied over Leigh in 11 out of 12 games, giving them an undefeated score for league games so far.

The Varsity baseball team defeated Branham last week with a score of 1-0. Greg Asti and Mike Talley were the Buc pitchers.

The Varsity track team also met with Branham last week. The meet went down not just to the last event but to the very last jump of the pole vault. The Bucs lost by only 2 points to the Bruins. Dan Hanks did an outstanding job in the broad jump, triple jump and the 400 yard relay.

The tennis team also smashed the Branham Bruins with a score of 7-0. Participating in the shut-out were Dennis Merrill, Ken Jensen, Tim Baker, David Angell, Doug Dill, Tom Mashos, Bob Mueller, Dave Kanau and Eugene Wong.

A rally was held last Friday afternoon in the girls' gym. The swimming, track, baseball and tennis teams were recognized. The Pirettes performed in the rally along with the cheerleaders. The coaches of each sport named the team members and announced when meets and games would be held.

The cast of "Flower Drum Song" went to a pizza parlor after Thursday nights performance. Friday night they all attended a cast party at the home of Kevin Barnes, the lead male singer in the play.

The Junior-Senior Recreation Night was held last Wednesday evening. There was a big turnout from both classes. Students entertained themselves with games of volleyball, badminton, basketball, dancing and refreshments. It was a big success.

Prospect High students for next year are being given the choice of colors and mascot for their new school. The voting was held Monday. The color choices were Columbia Blue and Gold or Royal Blue and Gold. The mascot choices were Trojans or Panthers.

Results will be announced after all the representatives meet from their respective schools and tally the votes.

Kitchen fires are increasing problem

Have you made french fries lately? How about some fried chicken in the deep fat fryer with the grease piping hot? Chances are that you use grease in varying proportions while preparing many of your family meals.

But, have you given thought to what can happen if this grease is allowed to overheat and catch on fire? Have you taken safeguards to protect your family and your possessions in case such a problem arises? Would you know what to do?

Since the beginning of this year, the Campbell Fire Department has had an alarming number of fires resulting from grease overheating on kitchen ranges.

Why does grease catch on fire, and just why is this particular type of hazard so serious? The answer to this question is obvious. First of all, most grease fires result when the pan of grease is left unattended on the kitchen range while the housewife makes a short phone call to a friend, or has to take a second to look into the yard to see what junior is doing. Sometimes it is little junior himself who walks by the range and decides to play with the controls, paying little heed to the assortment of pots and pans which have been allowed to accumulate there after the meal has been completed.

CARELESSNESS

If you are guilty of being careless when it comes to cooking, now is the time to change your style. Never leave grease in any kind of utensil unattended while cooking. Be sure that you have made the proper temperature setting in the preparation your dish. Never use more grease than is necessary, and keep inquisitive fingers away from the controls of your kitchen range. Always have the proper size lid to the pot which you are using close at hand in case of emergency and know what to do if a fire should start.

Housekeeping cannot be over emphasized. By keeping your home as clean as possible you are doing more for your family than gaining the reputation of being a good housekeeper. You are creating a safer home because you have eliminated many of the places where fire can start.

Let's not forget those hidden places where friends never look. One of the most neglected areas in most homes is the range hood which houses the exhaust fan directly over the kitchen range. The smart housewife makes sure that she cleans the filters in her range hood frequently and wipes all of the grease from this area as she is doing so. If you allow this hood to become loaded with grease your chances of having a severe fire in this location are much greater than the housewife who cleans hers regularly. Remember, the grease that collects here is the same grease which catches on fire in those pots and pans.

WHAT TO DO?

Let's suppose that you have taken all of the precautions that we have outlined for you and still have a fire. What do you do?

Why that's simple you say, "I'd pick up the pan and put it in the sink and run cold water into it!" WRONG. If you did this, chances are you would not only cause the hot grease to spatter up into your face, but also catch the window curtains on fire in the process. "Then I'd take the pan and throw it out of the kitchen door." WRONG AGAIN! Ask someone who has tried this procedure.

The first thing that he'll tell you is that the flames flashed back over his hands and he dropped the pan of grease all over the floor. Now instead of having a very small pan on fire, the entire floor is ablaze. Since you may have been heading for the door when you dropped this pan of fiery grease, chances are you have successfully cut off your only way of getting out of the building.

Well, what do you do then you say? First, be prepared at all times. When you are cooking do not allow yourself to be disrupted. If you are called away from the kitchen for any reason, regardless of the time involved, be sure that you shut off the electricity or gas under your appliances and if possible take them off of the range completely.

If a fire starts, THINK, do not allow yourself to go to pieces. You should have within easy reach the proper size lid for the pot or pan that you are using. By placing this lid on the pan and removing the source of heat by shutting off the burner or coil you will have successfully extinguished what could have been a disastrous fire.

CALL THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Far too many times people have thought that they have had a fire under control only to find that the fire has extended up through the exhaust duct in the range hood and is burning throughout the attic and roof. Don't take unnecessary chances. Give your fire department a call, we will be glad to serve you. If you would like more information on this very serious problem please call the Campbell Fire Department, 378-0183.

CUB SCOUTS

PACK 333

Cub Scout Pack 333 of Capri School held its March pack meeting recently at the school cafeteria. The flag ceremony opened the meeting, with Webelos Den 1 acting as color guard.

Dens 1, 2 and 3 each put on a skit with all the cubs participating. Mrs. Rogers' Den 1 acted out a short comedy.
Mrs. Masso's Den 2, in keeping with this month's theme,
"Rivers of the World", told many interesting facts concerning several of the world's largest rivers.

Mrs. Ochoa's Den 3 acted out a mock attack by pirates on some unsuspecting voyagers.

Cubmaster Phil Rogers made an appeal for adult leaders for a new Webelos Den.
This will be Webelos Den 2 and be made up of boys reaching ten (10) years of age.

Rogers then gave out the Medical Center answers many calls about poison in year

"My son drank a bottle of furniture polish! What should I do?" a frantic mother inquires. "Our daughter has swallowed some insecticide! What can we do to help her?" a worried father asks.

More than 2,300 callers with problems such as these called the poison control center at Santa Clara Valley Medical Center last year. The center provided treatment for more than 1,000 such emergency calls.

Poison Control Week, an annual event nationwide, began Mar. 18. It will be observed locally by the Valley Medical Center poison control center. Displays will be placed in 12 local hospitals, more than 30,000 pieces of literature on first aid for poisoning will be distributed, and posters will be displayed all over Santa Clara County in both English and Spanish.

An Automatic slide and audio program will be run continuously in the Santa Clara Valley Medical Center's pediatric clinic during Poison Control Week.

Operated by Santa Clara County, the center is part of a nationwide chain of poison control centers which offer information on toxic substances and their antidotes free of charge to the public and physicians on a 24-hour a day basis.

The center, one of eight in California and 484 across the United States, works through the National Clearing House in the U.S. Public Health Service, Washington D.C. It maintains over 3,000 trade name file cards on toxic and non-toxic substances, as well as a library of books, articles and bulletins on pharmacology, toxicology, poisonous plants, pesticides, and drugs.

By dialing 293-0262 locally, a person may obtain critical answers to lifesaving questions about poisoning. Located in a small office behind the emergency room desk at the Medical Center, the poison service also carries on treatment and care of poisoning cases through the hospital's facilities.

Pediatrician Robert E. Sharkey, M.D., one of three directors of the poison control center, notes that poisoning is the No. 1 medical emergency among children. Although a majority of the calls involve youngsters who have eaten too much aspirin, a number of other inquiries are made about common things found around the house, which might not seem toxic, but can be quite deadly. For example, many detergents, especially the high-powered variety, are high in lye content and a potential danger to babies crawling around the laundry area.

Dr. Sharkey stated that the best remedy for many poisonings is to induce vomiting. One should not cause vomiting if the patient is unconscious, is in convulsions, has swallowed a corrosive substance, or ingested a petroleum product, however.

When taking a person who has been poisoned to a doctor, Dr. Sharkey stressed, one should also take along the container involved.

No topless at the "Tiki"

A combination beer parlor and restaurant, "The Tiki" is expected to open June 1 at the corner of Winchester and Hacienda. Owners David Burks and Clifford Munger say the Tiki will feature dancing to live music. The owners specified that their place will not employ topless waitresses.

The 4,500 sq. ft. restaurant, now under construction, will be decorated in a polynesian theme. The owners indicated they will employ approximately ten people and will offer a varied luncheon menu and short orders.

Burks and Munger, both of Santa Clara, were formerly in the grocery business.

County official warns that taxes go delinquent April 10

The second half installment of real estate taxes is now due and payable and must be paid by April 10, 1968 to avoid payment of the 6% penalty and $3 costs, according to Edward N. Glaeser, Santa Clara County Director of Finance.

Property owners who have not received their tax bills or have misplaced them should telephone 299-2241 to obtain a bill so that their taxes will be paid on or before April 10. Glaeser said,

Failure to receive a tax bill does not relieve the property owner of the payment of penalty if the taxes become delinquent. However, if a bank or loan company pays the citizen's taxes, he need not make a request.

Glaeser stated that the majority of tax delinquencies occur during the first year of ownership of property. A new owner can determine what taxes to pay by checking his escrow papers. He should understand three important points:

1. That the second installment taxes may be unpaid because only the first installment was paid during escrow.

2. Whether the property owner or his lending agency is to pay the taxes.

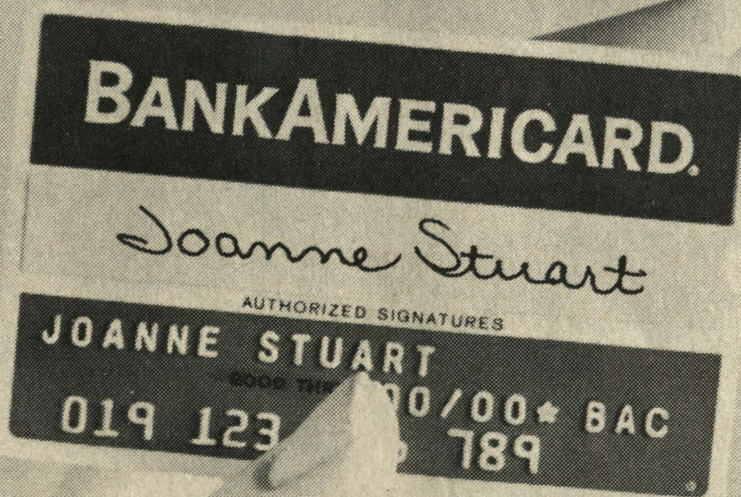

3. That property is subject to taxes, even if a bill has not been received.

To avoid penalties, Glaeser suggests mailing tax payments several days prior to April 10 to assure a postmark on or prior to April 10, 1968. Payments postmarked after April 10 will be returned to the taxpayer and will require the additional payment of the 6% penalty and $3 costs per parcel, in accordance with State law.

GOING DOWN

For more than 1,500 years, Korean and Japanese women have been descending as deep as 80 feet to the ocean bottom to collect edible shellfish and sea seaweeds.
